DEATH NOTICE

TESORIERE – NGAIRE (nee Thompson) died peacefully at her home on 29th May 2012 after an illness borne with dignity and courage. Much loved Wife of Joe. Mother of Joseph, Rebecca, Lucy & Jason. Mother-in-law to Kirstin, Paul & Mark and proud Granny of 10 who she loved dearly. Funeral Service will take place at St. Michael The Archangel Church, Lyme Regis on Thursday 7th June 2012 at 11.30am. Family Flowers Only Please. Donations, if desired, for Cancer Research UK or Macmillan Nurses may be sent c/o A. J. Wakely & Sons Ltd, 7A, Silver Street, Lyme Regis, Dorset DT7 3HR Tel: 01297 443835

CRICKET fan Richard Barker lives in West Chinnock with his partner Sally Ann. Together they run Cilla and Camilla in Beaminster.
Here he talks about his cricketing memories, why he loves West Dorset and about his plans for new venture Cilla and Camilla @ home.

■ YOU have played cricket for England schoolboys. Who is the best cricketer you've played against or alongside?

Mike Gatting - former England Captain. I played with three contemporaries who subsequently played international cricket for England. Mike Gatting - former England Captain - he realised his potential; left arm spinner Nick Cook and wicketkeeper Ian Gould. Both Ian and Nick went on to become first class cricket umpires.

■ YOU like to watch rugby and cricket. Do you have you any favourite sides and do you have any fond memories of watching them?

England - rather than clubs or counties - and memories are often of unfulfilled potential. The highlight remains watching England win against Australia in the World Cup final of 2003, but memories are often of unfulfilled potential.

■ HAVING worked as an operations director at Waterstone's, are you a bibliophile?

Yes, although I don't have as much time to read as I would like. I tend to binge read on holiday. Between myself and my partner Sally Ann, we do own more books than is strictly necessary. We could live in a much smaller space were it not for the excessive requirement for bookshelves.

■ WHAT is your favourite book and why do you like it so much?

I don't have favourites - there are different books for different times.

■ WHAT inspired you to want to move to this part of the country from London?

Quality of life, more space for our money and proximity to my partner's parents. We live in West Chinnochnock and have become very attached to the South Somerset and West Dorset area. I can't think of a better location for family life.

■ HOW long have you been running Cilla and Camilla in Beaminster and what made you want to quit your previous job and open a shop?

We bought Cilla and Camilla in October 2011, always with the intention of having more than one business locally. For four years after we moved, I commuted back to London for my job as General Manager of the Post Office network but I soon realised I was missing out on many of the benefits of living where we do. So, I took redundancy and with my partner, Sally Ann, bought Cilla and Camilla.

■ WHAT can people look forward to with the opening of Cilla and Camilla @ home, your second shop

60 SECOND INTERVIEW

in Beaminster?

All the wonderful things we would love to stock in Cilla and Camilla but for which we do not have sufficient space. Same quality of service, same slightly idiosyncratic range of stock, and - if the planners give permission - a traditional coffee shop and tea room.

■ HAVE you any goals you still want to achieve in your life?

Scoring a century for England at Lords - unlikely now to happen

■ HOW would you choose to spend your perfect summer's day?

At Hive Beach with a beer and barbecue listening to England beat Australia on Test Match Special

■ IF you won the lottery what three things would you buy first?

I don't buy lottery tickets - it's not going to happen! If I suddenly had more spare cash, I would employ a gardener. We're lucky to have a fabulous garden but maintaining it is a challenge to my competence and the use of my spare time.

■ IF you were stuck on a desert island, what three things would you want to have with you?

A boat to get off the island - I wouldn't enjoy the solitude; a map to ensure I didn't end up somewhere even less attractive; Sally Ann to help sail the boat (although her map reading skills would probably not be to our benefit).

Smiles at St Catherine's

■ St Catherine's Primary School held a jubilee picnic in the school's playing fields. The children entertained teachers and parents with a 'Royal Variety Show' with acts representing each decade of the Queen's reign.

■ THE beacon at Little Bredy, one of 4,200 lit around the country, was hand built by Daniel Barrett and Mike Luddington.

The two men, who both live in the village, are pictured lighting the beacon on Monday night.

Lighting the beacon

West Dorset turns red, white and blue

A SEA of red, white and blue was seen across the Bridport area as a wave of jubilee fever gripped residents.

Thousands of people took to the streets or joined in one of the many events held to mark the Queen's Diamond Jubilee.

These included pram races, street parties and fancy dress competitions, all making the four-day bank holiday celebrations go with a bang.

Revellers were in good spirits for the once in a lifetime event turning out in the hundreds to celebrate the past 60 years of the Queen's reign.

From street parties to crown making activities residents made the most of the bank holiday weekend.

The town's jubilee beacon was lit by competition winner Chris Cole and Councillor Geoff Ackerman.

The beacon on Allington Hill was built by Paul Bowditch and Adam Sherring along with family and friends. It was the 594th in a chain of beacons around the country, part of a world record event.

Bridport's Mayor, Councillor Dave Rickard, spent the Sunday at the Allington Hill celebrations.

He enjoyed a picnic with his wife Anne and took part in events like the three-legged race.

Councillor Rickard said: "I think 60 years being Queen of a great country is no mean feat. It's a landmark.

"People have come together in places all over the country, but Bridport does this sort of thing better than most places."

He added: "With all the events coming up this summer, it's party time now for Bridport right through to the hat festival."

Bradpole resident

Eileen Whitton said she enjoyed the jubilee celebrations.

She said: "It's a good chance to have a celebration and meet everybody because we don't get a chance like this very often."

"I'm a royalist because the Queen is someone for us to look up to and I admire her dedication."

Youngster Imogen Gordon, 12, said the jubilee celebrations had been great.

The Sir John Colfox pupil said: "I think it's been fantastic. I know what it's all about and think it's really good everybody celebrated such a good achievement as the Queen being on the throne for 60 years."

Martin Rumens, chairman of Bradpole pre-school, said: "I think the jubilee was a good time for people to get together and remember friends and family - and God bless the Queen."

"I remember all the jubilees and my parents celebrating in this fashion with lots of flags, it's kind of a family tradition now."

Restaurant Exhibition By Liz James

An exhibition of textile artwork by Liz James opens at the Restaurant Gallery of Broadwindsor Craft Centre on 26th May, running for three weeks. Liz has lived in Broadwindsor for six years and became intrigued by the processes involved in creating felted textiles whilst previously living in France. Her works are inspired by local sea and landscapes and are made by felting together different fibres including merino, alpaca and silks. Having previously exhibited in Dorset and East Devon this is Liz's first exhibition in her home village. This exhibition complements the art and craft work by local artists in the newly opened Attic gallery.

New ATTICGALLERY at Broadwindsor Craft Centre

The new gallery will be exhibiting a wide range of local artists work including, paintings, drawings, pottery, ceramics and wood crafts. Some limited space is still available, for details please contact Sarah on 01308 868362

Colour Wheel Plants

IT is fair to say that the Spring weather has not been kind to gardeners! The combination of first dry and then unusually cold and wet weather has stopped many green-fingered plans in their tracks.

As we are already into June (where did the time go?!) it is really important to get started on all that digging, planting, tending and trimming that has been put off until now. So if you are after a summer and autumn of dazzling displays, brilliant beds and luscious lawns – Colour Wheel Plants of Honiton is a great local choice, where you will find everything you need to care for your garden right here on your doorstep.

Our recently opened 5000 square foot garden centre shop offers a complete range of gardening products and accessories for both the traditional gardener and the gardening beginner in a modern, light and airy environment.

Our Shop is stocked full with 1,000's of different product lines, including garden tools, fertilizers, lawn care, propagation aids and seeds to grow your own. You will also find all of the usual seasonal favourites like vegetable plants, bedding plants, climbers, perennials, and herbs, as well as a large selection of patio and hanging basket plants, alpines and flowering shrubs all ready to plant now.

Colour Wheel Plants now boasts a large wild bird care department dedicated to supporting our feathered friends, including a complete range of feeders, loose bird seed and lots of new accessories.

If you are looking for that something special for someone special, our newly expanded gift area will provide you with all the inspiration you need.

Don't forget you can relax with a coffee or tea and a slice of home-made cake, or fill up with one of our superb all-day breakfasts made with locally sourced ingredients. Our lunch menu is prepared freshly every day of the week or perhaps enjoy an afternoon cream tea taking in the countryside views.

With lots of free onsite parking and a dedication to customer service and value for money – our family run garden centre looks forward to welcoming you soon.

Chris Rudge Renewables

RECENT Government announcements have now firmed up the future of Solar PV Feed in Tariff's (FiT). After April 1st the 21p FiT rate will continue till June, you'll need to obtain an EPC certificate declaring your premises are at Energy Band D or better to qualify for the full 21p rate. Rudge Renewables, they are offering their customers a 'Get Your D for Free' offer, providing a EPC survey and certificate at no cost, which will be valid not only for a PV system after April 1st, but any other renewable technology you may want to install later!

Solar panel prices are continuing to fall, and further price drops are anticipated right through the year, making Solar PV very attractive with Return on Investment at 10% or more for southerly facing roofs. Remember though that Feed in Tariffs are due to drop again in July to a lower level, so an early installation will ensure you earn the current FiT rate.

In addition, the Government have announced an extension to the popular Renewable Heat Prepayment scheme which is offering cash payments for people installing Solar Hot Water, Heat Pumps, and Biomass (wood burning) boilers to replace fossil fuels.

Rudge Renewables are able to provide free surveys for Solar PV, Solar Thermal, Wind Turbines, Heat Pumps and Wood chip/pellet installations. With over 5 years of experience installing renewables plus an expertise in battery backed systems for customers with no mains power connection. Installation costs are always kept as low as possible for local customers.

Solar PV systems are now so affordable, its the best opportunity to get a system installed before the the FiT is reduced again in July.

From April 1st, all premises need to have an Energy Performance Certificate (EPC) at Band D or better to get the full Feed in Tariff. We will arrange for this certification at no cost to you.

We also install Wind Turbines, Heat Pumps, Solar Hot Water and Wood chip boilers.

Open day at the Borough Gardens

AN OPEN day to celebrate Bridport's Borough Gardens is being held next week.

Bridport Town Council, working with Magna, residents and landscape architect Aileen Shackell, has set up a Community Project to improve the gardens.

Resident Eileen Haste has plans for a children's garden, and an 'edible garden', while flowers, climbers and shrubs would provide colour and fragrance in a low-maintenance plan.

A longer-term scheme will be worked up in the winter. The aim is to make the gardens a place cherished and respected by residents and visitors alike.

Bridport's 'secret garden' is off the Tan-yard (South Street) and Gundry Lane.

Councillor Gill Massey said: "We are holding an open day on Wednesday, June 13th from 11am to 4pm to help us plan the project."

Councillor Sarah Williams said: "We are keen to know your views and to involve the whole community, including visitors. Come along and fill in our questionnaire."

Gardener Sarah Wilberforce is advising on planting and design. She said they would be planting the existing beds with bee-friendly plants.

Councillor Maggie Ray said: "Many thanks to local residents of the Borough Gardens, Margaret and Ken Hallett, who provided tea for the workers on the planting day – the most important job of all!"

Greenpeace campaign fish comes to Burton Bradstock

THE campaign supporting fishermen reached the shores of Lyme Bay when Greenpeace set out a stall in Burton Bradstock.

To date more than 450 people in West Dorset have joined the Greenpeace 'Be a Fisherman's Friend' campaign.

The stall outlined the need for changes to controversial EU fishing laws to allow low impact fishers get a better deal at a European and UK level.

It was set up outside the Hive Beach Café - a renowned fish restaurant.

Greenpeace activist Irene Statham said the support from people had been fantastic.

She said: "Most people are aware that our fish and fishermen are in crisis and they want to help."

West Dorset fishermen Alex Jones said: "Really this is the last chance to save our coastal fishing communities."

"If they don't get this right, small scale sustainable fishermen will be consigned to the history books."

Greenpeace are concerned the UK's low impact fishermen were being put out of business by policies that shut out sustainable fishermen and favoured Europe's high impact operators.

Greenpeace claims a reform of Europe's Common Fisheries Policy (CFP) will offer a once-in-a-decade chance to change things.

It is calling for a halt to taxpayer subsidies for destructive fishing practices, and for fishing rights to be granted to those who fish sustainably, said Mrs Statham.

- Throughout the UK thousands of homeowners are currently benefiting from a yearly tax free sum from the government's Clean Energy cash back scheme by using the power of Solar PV (photovoltaic) energy.
- By generating electricity from solar panels this now means we can receive payments for what is produced and we still have the peace of mind that we are reducing our carbon footprint.
- Investing in solar energy today is a win-win situation and is proving to be one of the best investments that homeowners are choosing to make. The FIT rate currently stands at 21p per kwh.
- A 4kw/16 panel system with Konnectedit costs approximately £6995 this will give you a return of over £16000 in 25 years, how many other investments can give you that.

Hindu Day at St Mary's

■ THE children of St Mary's Primary School in Bridport got a sense of the world's oldest living religion when the school held a Hindu Day.

The pupils dressed up in traditional costumes, blew a conch shell, danced, and even took part in a mock wedding, all in a bid to learn about the values of Hinduism, the main religion of the Indian subcontinent.

The project is ongoing, with the children conducting further research into what is the world's third largest religion.

Saturday jazz at Othona

RENOWNED Bridport-based jazz musician Philip Clouts is performing at Othona, Burton Bradstock, on Saturday June 8th) as part of Dorset Arts Week.

The man from Auntie

MEMBERS of a Bridport group were treated to an afternoon of nostalgia by a former BBC studio manager.

Around 76 members of Bridport U3A were given a talk on music, memories and anecdotes by Campbell Hughes.

The talk was so successful the group are trying to get him to return.

U3A member Keith Windsor said the former Beeb employee had kept the audience in near permanent mirth throughout his talk.

He said: "He took us behind the scenes of the BBC and explained how easy it was for things to go wrong. At the end he said, 'This talk could have gone on much longer'."

He added: "He became interested in recording at a young age, getting his first microphone aged eight to start "experimenting".

He studied the organ before joining the BBC in 1964 as a Studio Manager – a job he described as "half musician, half technician".

His early training involved working with sounds, announcing, recording and controlling operations in the studio.

In describing his work Mr Hughes played many musical examples of his own recording from solo piano through groups of singers, light orchestral music in many different locations to eventual work as sound manager for the Promenade Concerts at the Royal Albert Hall.

The U3A group are set to welcome back Colin Varndell on Tuesday, June 26th.

The meeting starts at 2pm in Bridport United Church Hall, new members welcomed.

Golden Cap Centre talk on women in Saudi Arabia

THE Golden Cap Centre has organised to host a talk in Bridport on the woman of Saudi Arabia.

Caroline Sandwich will speak on 'Saudi Arabia and its clever women - My friendships with them' at the United Church Hall, East Street at 7:30pm on Friday, June 22nd.

Mrs Sandwich has been visiting, studying, and writing about Saudi Arabia and its society for over 30 years.

The talk will highlight the hard working, dedicated Saudi women of which the outside world knows little about. Mrs Sandwich's talk will give an insight into how the closed, conservative society of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia is being challenged from within by women.

All are welcome to talks organised the Golden Cap Centre. Admission for non-members is £3.

For further information on the event, telephone 01308 863577.

Discover your Alter Ego!

ALTER Ego Fancy Dress of Dorchester and Bournemouth is the place to visit for all your dress-up requirements whatever the occasion. The two shops have a huge range of costumes for hire, all bright and clean, in a variety of styles from traditional to modern.

We pride ourselves on providing a quality costume for a reasonable price. Everything is of good quality and well maintained: many costumes have been made to Alter Ego's own designs or sourced from the best of British costume makers. Standards of service are very high, with staff who are extremely knowledgeable and helpful in finding just the right costume with the right fit.

Alongside the hire service, Alter Ego has an Aladdin's cave of accessories. If you can wear it or carry it as a costume accessory, Alter Ego is likely to stock it! There are wigs, hats, masks, disguise kits, face paints and every other kind of accessory you can think of! We are the perfect choice for any Stag or Hen party theme.

New this season: a selection of brilliant neon coloured tutus, leg warmers, head and wrist bands, together with neon and UV face paints.

Alter Ego also holds a range of costumes for children, suited to school requirements such as history days, book days and other seasonal events. Children's costumes can be hired very cheaply or there are packet costumes for sale. There is also a new range of basic plain hooded tops that can be matched with masks, tails, ears, face paints or hats to make almost any animal or magical creature.

If you want to be sure of a striking costume then call by Alter Ego in High East Street and see what they have to offer to make your fancy dress event a success.

A traditional Indian welcome awaits you at The Spice Centre

THE restaurant seats 120 diners so you can enjoy your meal in a relaxing environment at your own pace and watch your food being cooked in the open plan kitchen.

For diners who wish to finish their evening in more relaxed surroundings the bar is situated away from the main restaurant with a comfortable sofa seating area where you can continue to enjoy attentive table service.

If it's not a large meal you are after, Indian tapas is served in the bar area, and is an ideal alternative for those who want a light bite before heading into town for the evening.

All meals are made using the finest ingredients by The Spice Centre's experienced chefs. They serve traditional Indian cuisine as well as their own unique dishes devised by the chefs to ensure there is something for everyone. However, if there is something you desire that does not appear on the menu just ask your waiter and they will be happy to accommodate your requirements.

Free home delivery is available within a 3 mile radius*, or you can make the most of a 10% discount if you come and collect your take away from the restaurant.

What's on at Dorset County Museum

DON'T miss the opportunity to see the popular current exhibition of contemporary art at Dorset County Museum which runs for just another two weeks.

Landscapes of Thomas Hardy's Wessex is inspired by the writing of Thomas Hardy and includes charcoal drawings, prints, steel etchings and oil paintings by Rob Pountney, Dave Gunning and David Inshaw. They depict the spectacular landscapes and ancient archaeological sites that feature in the novels and poems of Thomas Hardy.

The exhibition runs until 16 June. Many of the works are for sale and entry to the exhibition is free.

On Wednesday 6 June there is a family activity inspired by the current exhibition, Landscapes of Thomas Hardy's Wessex. The event runs from 10.30am to 12pm and everyone is welcome. The cost per child is just £3 and accompanying adults are admitted free.

On 2 July a brand new exhibition opens at the Museum. Our Sporting Life tells the story of Great British Sport and is part of the London 2012 Cultural Olympiad. This will be an inspiring exhibition celebrating not only the Dorset Olympians but also featuring memorabilia, stories and images from the local people, schools, clubs and venues that make up our sporting heritage, both past and present

The exhibition runs until 15 September and will include a range of family activities and events over the summer holidays – just phone 01305 262735 or check www.dorsetcountymuseum.org for further details.

Boutique café in the heart of Dorchester

THE Loft Café on Antelope Walk in Dorchester has an ethos to provide freshly made food with seasonal ingredients, and locally obtained where possible. All food is made at the café, except for the bread which is sourced from an artisan bakery, and the menu changes daily. This ensures that ingredients are always at their best and that there is minimum waste.

The Loft has a distinctly European feel as customers can enjoy something to eat or a glass of wine at anytime throughout the day. Delicious food, wine and coffee are available at all times, and the ambience is always relaxed and inviting.

Coffee lovers will be thrilled to discover that Illy coffee has been chosen specifically for its freshness and superior taste. The brand is also truly fair to its producers as they buy direct, and also boast some impressive environmental credentials.

This unique concept is the vision of owner Sally Dixon, who has live overseas and travelled extensively throughout Africa and Asia, bringing a wonderful mix of world flavours and traditional coffee shop values to Dorchester. The Loft's Supper Club begins on Tuesday 3rd April with a Nonya themed evening. This will then run on the first Tuesday of each month.

So for a delicious slice of homemade cake and a superb cup of coffee, a light flavoursome lunch with a glass of wine, or a quiet moment with a cup of green tea, The Loft Café is the place to be.

Jack Harrison and the Dharma Bums tour comes to Bridport

JACK Harrison is a twenty-three-year-old writer, guitar player and singer. He has spent a number of years moving between the South West and the South East, passing through other towns and cities along the way, meeting folks, making sense, losing touch, believing in songs. He writes and sings on many topics, from madness and love, through to medication and economic flailing and plays guitar with a percussive, fingerpicking technique, influenced by the likes of Paul Simon, Bert Jansch, Bob Dylan, Nick Drake and other performing songwriters of this ilk.

Jack often plays shows with his long-time musical collaborator Joseph Trudgeon's Jack Kerouac inspired collective, 'the Dharma Bums', who weave between genres including blues, alternative, country, jazz, folk, folk-rock and psychedelia. Jack Harrison and the Dharma Bums will be hosting open mic nights at Sydney Arms in Dorchester on Friday, June 12th at 9pm, and at Woods Wine Bar, Yeovil on Saturday, June 16th. Performers of all levels and styles, players of any instrument (Jews Harp to Mongolian Spittle Reed) and enjoyers of folk, blues, jazz, country, alternative and beyond are welcomed.

Jack Harrison and the Dharma Bums will also perform at No. 10 Cafe Bar, Bridport on Friday, July 6th at 9pm, as part of their acoustic tour. The tour goes ahead in association with JSW Promotions and Cut Magazine UK.

To listen to, and contact, Jack Harrison and the Dharma Bums before the event, find them on facebook, or visit www.jackharrisonmusic.co.uk

This is Spartan!

SPARTAN, a group of hard rocking lads aged between 14 and 16 saw off the competition at the recent 'Live and Unsigned' South England area finals to book their place at the O2 Arena this July!

The foursome will line up alongside other area winners for the 'Live and Unsigned' National Grand Final on Saturday, July 14th.

Margaret Cubberley of Anning Road, Lyme Regis, is the grandmother of the lead singer, Harvey Groom. Margaret has two daughters, who for 25 years ran the ladies hairdressers called Marie and Julie's in Silver Street. Margaret said, "I'm absolutely thrilled for Harvey. He works so hard at his music he deserves everything he gets out of it. I go up to Portsmouth to stay with my daughter Marie regularly, and Harvey plays guitar for 2 to 3 hours a day. He started writing his own songs at 14 and recorded his first EP at 16. He has music in his blood so for him to get to play somewhere like the O2 is absolutely fantastic."

Tickets for the National Grand Final, held at The O2 Arena, London, on Saturday, July 14th, are available by visiting www.liveandunsigned.uk.com, costing £20, or £35 for a VIP ticket.

Wise Intentions get Live and Unsigned Wildcard

WISE Intentions have one final opportunity to progress to the Grand Final and play at The O2 on Saturday, July 14th - they have been thrown a Wildcard in the form of a national public vote! There is only one place up for grabs from each region and just a short time for them to make their mark.

After the first week, the list of acts using their 'wildcard' will be replaced with a leader board of the top placed acts. The voting will be updated on the website. Voting will end midday on the Wednesday, June 13th.

Text 'wildcard673' to '84222' please note: each text costs £1 plus standard network price.

BAREBULB CONTINUE SOUTH WEST TOUR OF 'CONTRACTIONS'

A SINISTER take on the world of corporate business captivated an intimate audience at Bridport Arts Centre, as BareBulb Theatre made their thrilling debut with 'Contractions' by Mike Bartlett, a darkly comedic yet shocking tale.

The action focuses on the relationship between a manager and her employee.

As Emma (Sylvia Hunt) becomes romantically involved with a colleague, her manager (Julie Wood) objects and goes to extremes to make sure her employee stays within the terms of her contract.

The cold and calculating portrayal of the office Manager is executed chillingly by Julie Wood who, despite the increasingly psychopathic actions of her character, manages to maintain the credibility of her villainous role throughout. The heinous actions of the nameless manager were delivered with such a subtlety that it made them all the more terrifying to endure.

Complimenting Julie's performance was the torturous portrayal of employee Emma's mental breakdown, played with effortless skill by Sylvia Hunt. The character's journey from a bright and confident young woman to a anxious shell of her former self was harrowing to watch and as an audience member left you feeling as agonisingly helpless as the character you were rooting for.

A few first night hiccups were covered with the professionalism that is expected of the experienced performers, and the two-woman cast lived up to the challenge admirably maintaining a slick tempo throughout and effortlessly engaging the audience from start to finish.

'Contractions' continues on a South West tour, including Dorchester Arts Centre on June 15th (for tickets call 01305 266926).

ORLA MURPHY BRINGS WONDER TO BRIDPORT JAZZ CAFE

IRISH-BORN London-based vocalist Orla Murphy will be performing the songs of Stevie Wonder, accompanied by pianist Philip Clouts, at the Bridport Arts Centre Jazz Café on Friday, June 8th.

Orla Murphy is a talented singer whose voice has been described as possessing a distinctive, rich sound with a deep and soulful timbre; and often comparisons are made with great Jazz Vocalists Nina Simone, Cleo Laine, and Diana Krall.

She has worked and recorded with many of London's leading jazz musicians, some of which feature on her second album 'Wonderous Visions', which was officially released in March at the Leicester Square Theatre. The album is a set of new jazz arrangements of Stevie Wonder songs, chosen mainly from his works from the 1970s - his 'classic' period. The album has already received notable praise from jazz critics and musicians alike. As a special preview, several tracks from the album are posted on Orla's website at: www.orlamurphy.net

Orla has also performed at various International festivals throughout the UK and Ireland, in Glasgow, Derry, and Sligo; and at jazz venues in her native Ireland, Scotland, and Wales; as well as performing in Italy and Malaysia.

Born and raised in Belfast, Northern Ireland, Orla's interest in jazz was fuelled by the plethora of great jazz musicians that performed at her late father's bar and music room 'The Bridge', during the early to mid-1990s. The venue played host to local, national and international jazz musicians and it was around this time that her interest and love of jazz began, and so too her quest to pursue a career as a jazz vocalist.

Orla Murphy will perform at Bridport Arts Centre this Friday, June 8th from 8pm. Tickets cost £8 and are available from the box office on 01308 424204.

The Tin Violin tells remarkable true story

BISH BASH BOSH Productions presents a UK Tour of Alan M. Kent's award-winning play, The Tin Violin. The true story of Guinean slave Joseph Emidy, who made his way from Africa to Cornwall in 1800 and became a famous violinist and composer. They will be on stage at Bridport Arts Centre on Saturday, June 9th at 8pm

Alan M. Kent's play is a thoughtful and moving exploration of creative and cultural identity in a world much larger than ours is today. Winner of the 2009 'Hoyler An Gof' award for best drama, the show also features live music from the People's String Foundation of Cornwall and choreography by C-Scape Dance Company. A play rich with dialect, dance and decadence,

Born in Guinea, West Africa in 1775, at the height of European colonialism, Joseph 'Josh' Emidy was first captured as a slave by the Portuguese, then kidnapped by the British Navy, serving as a fiddler on The Indefatigable during the French wars. Landing at Falmouth, Cornwall and being presented with a magical tin violin made by an illiterate miner, Emidy became a musical genius of the early nineteenth century. A magical re-imagining of Joseph's journey, from the oppression of slavery to encounters with mad sailors, the potty queen of Portugal and a chorus of Cornish fishwives, The Tin Violin is a thoughtful, moving and funny exploration of identity, creativity and belonging.

Writer Alan M. Kent says: "Emidy's story is one that I had been longing to write a play about. One of the figures now celebrated during Black History Month, parts of his life are well recorded, but other periods are hidden. We have had to ensure continuity from his berimbau-playing and Capoeira adventures in Brazil to his time in early nineteenth-century Cornwall. The real loss is that none of his compositions have survived - the story of which we tell in the drama."

Tickets are available from the box office £12/£9 members/£5 concs. Call 01308 424204 or visit www.bridport-arts.com for more information.

Poetry for Pleasure

by Frank McGarry

"The cure for boredom is curiosity. There is no cure for curiosity."

Dorothy Parker

WE are all familiar with the expression "from the sublime to the ridiculous". When I read the poems of Dorothy Parker I think that description is not very far from the truth. She is perhaps better known for her bad poems than for her goods ones. She once remarked, "A little bad taste is like a nice dash of paprika." These three untitled verses, followed by her 'Symptom Recital' are samples of her wit.

*"I like to have a martini,
Two at the very most.*

*After three I'm under the table,
After four I'm under my host."*

*"Four be the things I am wiser to know:
Idleness, sorrow, a friend, and a foe.
Four be the things I'd be better without:
Love, curiosity, freckles, and doubt.*

*"Three be the things I shall never attain:
Envy, content, and sufficient champagne.
Three be the things I shall have till I die:*

Laughter and hope and a sock in the eye."

SYMPTOM RECITAL

*I do not like my state of mind;
I'm bitter, querulous, unkind.
I hate my legs, I hate my hands,
I do not yearn for lovelier lands.
I dread the dawn's recurrent light;
I hate to go to bed at night.
I snoot at simple, earnest folk.
I cannot take the gentler joke.
I find no peace in paint or type.
My world is but a lot of tripe.
I'm disillusioned, empty-breasted.
For what I think, I'd be arrested.
I am not sick, I am not well.
My quondam dreams are shot to hell.
My soul is crushed, my spirit sore;
I do not like me any more.
I cavil, quarrel, grumble, grouse.
I ponder on the narrow house.
I shudder at the thought of men...
I'm due to fall in love again."*

Dorothy Parker was not always trying to amuse. She had her serious side too. For me, this little poem of hers approaches the sublime.

A DREAM LIES DEAD

*A dream lies dead here. May you softly go Before this place, and turn away your eyes,
Nor seek to know the look of that which dies
Importuning Life for life. Walk not in woe,
But, for a little, let your step be slow.
And, of your mercy, be not sweetly wise
With words of hope and Spring and tenderer skies.*

A dream lies dead; and this all mourners know:

*Whenever one drifted petal leaves the tree-
Though white of bloom as it had been before
And proudly waitful of fecundity-
One little loveliness can be no more;
And so must Beauty bow her imperfect head
Because a dream has joined the wistful dead!*

Encore screenings of NT Live's Frankenstein at Electric Palace

OSCAR-WINNING director Danny Boyle returned to the theatre to direct this visionary production with Benedict Cumberbatch and Jonny Lee Miller. This award winning production will be returning to the Electric Palace for Encore screenings on Thursday 14th and Thursday, June 28th.

Childlike in his innocence but grotesque in form, Frankenstein's bewildered creature is cast out into a hostile universe by his horror-struck maker. Meeting with cruelty wherever he goes, the friendless Creature, increasingly desperate and vengeful, determines to track down his creator and strike a terrifying deal. Urgent concerns of scientific responsibility, parental neglect, cognitive development and the nature of good and evil are embedded within this thrilling and deeply disturbing classic gothic tale.

With five star reviews from both large and small scale publications with comments like: '...they're both terrific....It is a theatrical coup.' 'The visceral nature of the performances is tremendously impressive.' '...this is a memorable production and will doubtless be spoken of for years to come.' and a raft of awards including Best Actor for both Miller and Cumberbatch, Best Director for Boyle and Best Designer for the set this is a double bill of Encore screenings not to be missed.

The National Theatre Live's Encore screenings of Danny Boyle's 'Frankenstein' will be at the Electric Palace on Thursday, June 14th, with Jonny Lee Miller as the Creature and Cumberbatch as Victor Frankenstein and on Thursday, June 28th, with Benedict Cumberbatch as the Creature and Miller playing Dr Frankenstein. Doors will open at 7.00pm for both performances with the screenings starting at 7.30pm. Tickets are £12.50 and are available from Bridport Tourist Information Centre on 01308 424901.

Bridport venue is award winner

THE Electric Palace in Bridport Dorset is celebrating its recent success at being awarded second place for 'Best Small Live Venue' at the prestigious 'Rock The House Award's last Wednesday evening at the House of Commons. Hosted by Mike Weatherley MP and with nominations from 192 constituencies, the Electric Palace was delighted to come second being beaten only by a venue in Liverpool.

Electric Palace Director Gabby Rabbitts commented that 'It is a credit to the hard work of the Electric Palace team that we have been given this award. To have come second from 192 nationwide nominations, many of which are from much larger towns and cities, is a huge recognition of the dedication of our team to bring the best live music to a rural area'she continued that 'to be one of three finalists, with the other two being in Leeds and Liverpool shows how the Electric Palace in Bridport really is punching above its weight!'

The Electric Palace opened as a live events venue in 2008 and has already staged performances from major UK and international artists including USA DJ Grandmaster Flash, Hawkwind, Seth Lakeman, New Model Army, Courtney Pine and The Proclaimers.

The Electric Palace attracts customers that travel from all over the country for concerts and the spin off trade into the town is considerable. People travelling from far afield usually make a weekend of it, booking B&Bs for whole weekends, eating and drinking in local pubs and restaurants and shopping within the town.

Winning the award has already attracted attention from agents of high profile artists and the team are looking forward to staging some very special concerts in the near future.

Internationally acclaimed cellist returns to Uplyme

LIONEL Handy, the internationally acclaimed cellist is returning to Uplyme Church with his accompanist David Clayton for a concert on Tuesday, June 12th at 7.30pm.

Lionel is one of the outstanding cellists of his generation. As a scholarship student at the Royal Academy of Music, Lionel Handy won all the prizes for cello and chamber music. Later he became a professor at the Royal Academy of Music, and taught at the Birmingham Conservatoire in addition to summer schools in Europe.

Lionel was principal cello with the Academy of St. Martin-in-the-Fields for ten years with whom he recorded extensively and toured in the United States and Europe. Later he was solo cellist with the Bournemouth Sinfonietta, He has broadcast frequently for BBC Radio Three and European networks and has made numerous commercial recordings. He has given solo recitals at the Wigmore Hall.

In 2007 he suffered an horrific accident whilst on tour in Germany which could have ended his life. Thanks to outstanding medical care in Germany and Southampton he made a miraculous recovery. His come back concert was in Uplyme in February 2008. Since then he has rebuilt his career. Lionel Handy launched a series of concerts to promote new works for the cello, and also to celebrate his own physical recovery from the accident. His recent recording for the Cadenza music label has received both national and international critical acclaim. In 2010 he was made a Fellow of the Royal Academy of Music, an honor given to only to the most distinguished academy musicians

The Uplyme concert will feature the music of Beethoven, Bax and Schubert. This will be another memorable evening of superb cello music; a unique opportunity to hear one of the foremost cellists in an intimate church setting. Admission will cost £8 payable on the door. Children and college students come free.

Cabaret and jazz from Charlie Bicknell at next 115 Club

BRIDPORT'S only Dedicated Dinner & Music Venue, the 115 Club, last week celebrated yet another great performance, this time Julie Dunn returned for her second visit, accompanied by Ben Waghorn, between them performing some fine Jazz, a mix of classic & Contemporary, using the sounds of the Keyboards, Sax, Flute & Julies pitch perfect vocals.

The next instalment, on Thursday, June 7th, is that of Charlie Bicknell. A stunning Cabaret style act, Charlie infuses the cabaret from London's West End with Jazz, accompanied by David Harrod on Keyboards & local performer, Clive Ashley on Sax.

The concert should retain the Jazz feel, but offer something a little special for those lovers of Cabaret. Charlie is highly regarded in her genre as one of the finest, performing at multiple venues and concerts nationally including Pizza in the Park and Chelsea arts club, having rave reviews to her name including Godfrey Smith of the Times Newspaper who said "A classy young Chanteuse in whom sex and wit, style and charm make a high octane mix. Enjoy the ride."

What more can be said but to book now, tables for the pre-performance dinner are going fast, and you would kick yourself to miss this one.

Pre-booking for dinner between 7pm and 8pm is essential, and guests should telephone on the day (between 2pm and 6pm) to confirm numbers in their party, at which time they will be informed of the cover charge - anticipated at between £5 and £10 per guest. Unfortunately late-comers cannot be accommodated as dining must be completed before the music starts at about 9pm.

ON THE BANKS OF THE SEINE

A magical and mysterious, dark and beautiful cabaret-with-a-difference at The Lyric Theatre

FANCY a stroll around the back streets of Paris, a tour of underground Buenos Aires and some show-stopping chansons without having to cross the English Channel? Bi-lingual Jazz/cabaret singer-songwriter Bethany Jameson and master accordionist Romano Viazani are bringing their stunning new show, On the Banks of The Seine, to Bridport's Lyric Theatre on Saturday, June 30th. There will be a matinee at 2.30pm with French nibbles and an evening performance at 8pm with an invite to dress up for a Moulin Rouge-themed evening.

Originally created as a commission for the London Bastille Day Festival in 2009, On the Banks of The Seine went down a storm with critics and audience as a duo concert, performed by Bethany and Romano. It is now a full evening of Cabaret, music and song and the duo is now a quartet. Bethany says, "The new songs are in the modern cabaret tradition that includes Fascinating AIDA, Tim Minchin and Camille O'Sullivan, but also doffs a cap to past masters of Variety, Morecombe and Wise. We're not quite as 'blue' or experimental as some of the more extreme acts out there. We focus on making gorgeous music, getting to know our audiences and having fun, and in our dignified if slightly wicked way, make a point on a few subjects that matter to us."

The show mixes some compelling storytelling (in English) with gorgeous French chansons and sultry Tangos (1930s to modern day) as well as the cabaret songs. The signature song 'Just Her Younger Man' was judged 'a showstopper' by London Fringe Theatre. Bethany adds "Our new songs cover politics, the beauty products myth, looking after aging parents and getting old disgracefully. The chansons and Tango pieces are about the poor and downtrodden of the harbours and back streets so there's plenty of humour but it's fairly black!"

The new team members are well known and respected musicians in their own right and much in demand, so they cover the performances between them. The virtuoso violinists are Declan Daly (classical, jazz and folk, recorded for Lord of the Rings and Harry Potter) and Sarah Harrison (Mazaika, Fascinating AIDA, gypsy jazz and tango styles). The exceptional double bass players are Nick Pini (Puppini Sisters, Alan Pownall, Soko, Mitch Winehouse, Laura Marling and Jac Jones) and Neil Charles (Ex-Tomorrow's Warrior, former member of Empirical, Leader of Zed-U: classical double bass and electric jazz bass).

Theatre co-owner, Niki McCretton, said, "We're really excited and proud to be able to have this enchanting and unique show here at The Lyric. We are pleased to be able to present a matinee performance as well as the evening show by popular request from local people"

On the Banks of The Seine will be performed at Bridport's Lyric Theatre (9 Barrack Street DT6 3LX), with performances at 2.30pm (matinee) and 8pm. Tickets cost £11 and £9 (concessions) from www.bethanyjameson.co.uk or www.the-lyric.com, by phone on 01308 423951, e-mail tickets@the-lyric.com or pop into The Lyric, Fruits of The Earth (Victoria Grove, Bridport) or Bridport Music (South St, Bridport).

ON THE BANKS | Bethany Jameson with Romano Viazani, Declan Daly and Nick Pini

Wonderful selection of Genuine French produce at the French Food and Craft Market in Beaminster

LE MARCHE de France has been invited to come and visit Beaminster again, and bring a great range of high quality and fresh produce from all regions of France for one day for everyone to enjoy.

There will be a magnificent cheese stall with a truly enormous selection of French cheeses. Bread will be baked onsite, in front of visitors, on the new bread and patisserie stall and the smell of bread, croissants and patisseries should hopefully spread in the whole town centre. There will also be the Charcuterie with wonderful sausages, olives, Turkish delights, smoked ham and Calvados pate. Pure Butter Homemade biscuits, cakes and Ginger bread, Mustards, sauces and, of course, garlic will be on offer as well! For those with a sweet tooth, wonderful natural honeys as well the hugely popular crepes stall will be on display. If you still have a small space left after all that, the sweet stall will also be making fresh pralines, almonds and cashews on site.

And for those who like South of France, they will find soaps from Marseille, lavers, tablecloths from Provence... Oh, La la!

BRIDPORT ARTISTS EXHIBITING AT MILES CROSS FARM FOR DORSET ARTS WEEK

BRIDPORT artists Brendon Murless and Delphine Jones are currently taking part in the UK's biggest open studios event, the biannual Dorset Art Weeks, with a joint exhibition at Symondsbury's Miles Cross Farm.

Sculptor Brendon Murless' art work originally stemmed out of his specialised trade in traditional and decorative plaster work. He grew up in Powerstock and with a life-long love of the rural landscape surrounding him, developed a unique, artistic approach to natural earth plasters, sculpting relief images freehand in cob, lime plaster and stucco, often depicting flora and fauna. He then branched out into woodcarving, taking the human form as a starting point, creating bold silhouettes, flowing contours and an abstract twist. Brendon's unique work is increasingly in demand, with work exhibited in galleries and commissions from the National Trust and private clients across the country. A wide variety of Brendon's work will be on display at Miles Cross Farm for Dorset Art Weeks during which time he will also be sculpting on site.

Exhibiting alongside Brendon, freelance illustrator Delphine Jones will display a new body of drawings exploring insects. Having collected perished butterflies, moths and bees she has found over the past year on windowsills, pavements and anywhere else, Delphine put the insects under the magnifying glass to create detailed ink drawings with splashes of colour, using the pages of old books as her canvases. Since graduating from the (then) Arts Institute at Bournemouth with a degree in Illustration in 2006 Delphine has worked full time within the Dorset arts scene, and also undertaken a variety of graphic design and illustration commissions for clients both locally and nationally, including Alice Temperley and Clarks.

The pair's joint exhibition at Miles Cross Farm will be open daily from until June 10th, 10am-5pm (closed 1-2pm). To get there, take the turning to Symondsbury nearest to the A35; the farm buildings are shortly on your right, by the dovecot. Look out for the red and yellow DAW signs, venue number 133 / 135. For more details please call 07967 466996.

This week's big screen releases

ILL MANORS <sup>18</sup>

ILL MANORS, directed by Ben Drew, aka rapper Plan B, is a gritty, ultra-realistic story of violence and the struggle to survive in Forest Gate, London. The film follows eight main characters, and there tales interlink, with each story soundtracked by a different Plan B rap song.

Stars Riz Ahmed, Nathalie Press, Dannielle Brent and Mem Ferda.

RED TAILS <sup>12A</sup>

ITALY, 1944. As the war takes its toll on Allied forces in Europe, a squadron of black pilots known as the Tuskegee Airmen are finally given the chance to prove themselves in the sky - even as they battle discrimination on the ground. It's a tribute to the unsung heroes who rose above extraordinary challenges and ultimately soared into history.

Stars Terrence Howard, Cuba Gooding Jr and Nate Parker.

A FANTASTIC FEAR OF EVERYTHING <sup>12A</sup>

JACK (Simon Pegg) is a children's author turned crime novelist whose detailed research into the lives of Victorian serial killers has turned him into a paranoid wreck, persecuted by the irrational fear of being murdered. When Jack is thrown a life-line by his long-suffering agent and a mysterious Hollywood executive takes a sudden and inexplicable interest in his script, what should be his big break rapidly turns into his big breakdown, as Jack is forced to confront his worst demons; among them his love life, his laundry and the origin of all fear.

Also stars Paul Freeman, Amara Karan and Clare Higgins, and is directed by Kula Shaker frontman Crispian Mills.

THE INNKEEPERS <sup>15</sup>

DURING the final days at the Yankee Pedlar Inn, two employees determined to reveal the hotel's haunted past begin to experience disturbing events as old guests check in for a stay.

Horror starring Sara Paxton, Pat Healy and Kelly McGillis.

THE PACT <sup>15</sup>

AS A woman struggles to come to grips with her past in the wake of her mother's death, an unsettling presence emerges in her childhood home.

Horror mystery starring Caitly Lotz, Casper Van Dien and Agnes Bruckner.

LYME REGIS - £397,500

Number 21 is a modern mid-terrace Georgian style town house built to a very high specification and located in this exclusive development of other similar properties. The accommodation, which benefits from full gas fired central heating, double glazing throughout and a burglar alarm system, is recently built and is offered in immaculate decorative order throughout. In addition the property enjoys some good sea and coastal views along the West Dorset coastline and countryside views across the town towards Timber Hill. An internal inspection is strongly recommended to fully appreciate this fine and deceptively spacious property.

LYME REGIS - £475,000

Rowley Lodge was built approximately 20 years ago and designed to make the most of its elevated position and outlook. With three double bedrooms (the master en suite) and family bathroom on the ground floor. On the first floor two good sized reception rooms, kitchen and sun terrace. With fine views over the town to the Bay and along the West Dorset Coastline. Gardens, garage and parking, located only a short walk from the town and beaches.

UPLYME - £315,000

Scatterbrook a detached house situated in the pleasant village of Uplyme offering spacious and flexible accommodation. On the ground floor living room and dining room with an additional sitting room with doors opening to the garden which could be used for a number of uses. An L shaped kitchen provides plenty of workspace and ample cupboards. To the first floor master bedroom with recently fitted ensuite shower room, further two bedrooms and a good sized family bathroom. Outside there is a garden with both patio and lawn areas. At the front of the property parking for several vehicles. uPVC double glazing and gas central heating.

HAWKCHURCH - £249,950

Built in circa 1990 this is a well proportioned three bedroom mid terrace house situated close to the centre of the village. The property has lovely views over open countryside. The accommodation briefly comprises; entrance hallway, wc, lounge dining room with access to the large conservatory. Modern kitchen with built in double oven and hob. Two good sized double bedrooms, further single bedroom and family bathroom. The property further benefits uPVC double glazing, garage and parking and garden backing onto open fields.

LYME REGIS - £547,500

This sea view home is situated in a popular residential area in an elevated position with views over the town to the sea and coastline. In a quiet location away from the busy main roads, though just a short walk from the town centre and beaches.

LYME REGIS - £137,000

Number 8 Charmouth House is a purpose-built ground floor flat, originally constructed in the early 1970s, pleasantly situated in a small quiet cul-de-sac location on the western side of the famous coastal resort of Lyme Regis. The apartments have attractive communal gardens with ample parking and enclosed drying area etc. A private pathway leads through the grounds onto the Uplyme Road and onwards to the town centre.

LYMR REGIS - £59,950

The restaurant is situated at the lower level in an historic character building once the local Town Council offices. The natural stone walling, arches and recesses provide it with considerable atmosphere and ambience.

ROUSDON - £499,950

Converted to a very high standard, the property sits in grounds of 350 acres with private garden and access to the private beach. The accommodation comprises; entrance hallway and cloakroom, with slate floors, large lounge with study area, well fitted double aspect kitchen/diner overlooking both courtyard and garden. Stairs rising to the first floor with vaulted ceiling and exposed beams to landing and all bedrooms, master bedroom with ensuite shower room, two further bedrooms and family bathroom. Accessed from both the courtyard and Horsehoe Cottage is a one bedroom annex with kitchen/lounge and shower room offering extra accommodation for the main house or useful self contained unit. (Holiday letting is permitted).

UPLYME - £735,000

South View was built approximately 25 years ago. The house stands in a plot of approximately 2,000 square metres (approximately half an acre) with extensive gravel driveway providing parking. The south facing rear garden with views over the village is private with a large patio terrace and 27' x 12' (8.23m x 3.66m) swimming pool.

The new BMW M3 and M5 M performance editions

BMW Individual comes to two M models

TWO exclusive new M Performance Editions for the BMW M3 and BMW M5 are being built by BMW M GmbH solely for the UK market. Just thirty of each model will be available costing £74,080 OTR for the M3 M Performance Edition and the M5 M Performance Edition is priced at £95,140 OTR.

Showcasing BMW Individual, these M Performance Editions will bring three new Frozen paint

▲ The new BMW M3 Performance Edition

colours to the UK for the first time; BMW Individual Japan Red with a Frozen Red wrap, BMW Individual Frozen White and BMW Individual Frozen Blue. All are on sale now. To complement the striking exterior colours, all M5 M Performance Editions come with Full Black Merino leather upholstery and all M3 M Performance Editions come with extended Black Novillo leather upholstery, both with trasting Mugello Red, Lotus White or Tobago Blue stitching as standard. Floor mats with contrast piping, an Alcantara steering wheel, BMW Individual Piano Black interior trim with a 'One of 30' laser cut designation, front headrests with M stitching and door sills with 'BMW M Performance Edition' designation complete the look of the interior.

The new BMW M3 M Performance Edition features BMW's class-leading 420hp V8 engine with power transferred to the road via a standard seven-speed M DCT transmission and variable M differential. The car also comes with the Competition Package as standard, which features 10mm lowered suspension, Electronic Damper Control with Sport mode and a revised DSC+ system. Additionally, the BMW M3 M Performance Edition boasts an array of extra standard equipment including; 19-inch M Y-spoke Matt Black alloy wheels, Dark Chrome exhaust, side gills and kidney surround, jet black bonnet intakes, carbon-fibre front splitters, high-gloss Shadowline exterior trim, folding exterior mirrors and sun protection glass to complement its unique exterior. Adaptive headlights, DAB digital radio, a Harman/Kardon 13-loudspeaker system, BMW Professional Media Package, mobile application preparation, telephone USB audio interface and Internet add to the M3's practicality. While the sliding front armrest, front seat heating and front and rear Park Distance Control complete the package. The extensive list of equipment, now standard, is worth £9,790.

The new BMW M5 M Performance Edition features BMW's latest 560hp TwinPower Turbo V8 engine complete with race-bred chassis technology including an Active M differential and electronic damping control. Combining track-car dynamics with supreme touring comfort, the new BMW M5 M Performance Edition includes £22,075 worth of additional equipment as standard.

For this added value 20-inch M Double-spoke Matt Black alloy wheels, Dark Chrome exhaust, side gills and kidney surround, M Sport multi-function seats with lumbar support, powered bootlid operation, sun protection glass, split-folding rear seats, comfort access and soft close doors add to the already impressive standard equipment list. A reversing assist camera, High-beam assistant, Internet, BMW Professional 12-loudspeaker system, telephone USB audio interface, mobile application preparation and speed limit display complete this exclusive model.

Peugeot launches interactive iPad magazine

PEUGEOT is extending the accessibility of its popular Rapport magazine through iPad, and it is now available for FREE in the Apple App Store:
<http://itunes.apple.com/g>

b/app/rapport-by-peugeot/id469407123?mt=8

The electronic magazine includes fascinating lifestyle features, incorporating exclusive video content and image galleries, with interactive functionality bringing the Peugeot product range and launches to life. Rapport on the iPad is a compelling read for Peugeot owners and enthusiasts, as well as those who want to know more about the extensive initiatives available to Peugeot customers.

Highlights include:
• Discover Peugeot's new

208, heralding a fresh new era of superminis

• A Welsh riverside adventure in the world's first diesel hybrid – the 3008 Hybrid4

• Explore some of the best cycle routes in the UK with our interactive map

• Find out more about the impressive Peugeot 508 RXH – a versatile hybrid estate

• Plus take a trip into the gruelling world of triathlon

• Explore the Peugeot range, discover the latest special offers, download a brochure, request a test drive or find your local Peugeot Dealership.

The all-new app comes with automatic content updates and News stand support.

suite of EfficientDynamics technologies, including Auto Start-Stop, ensuring highly responsive performance goes hand-in-hand with low fuel consumption and emissions. Extensive use of aluminium in the body and chassis reduces weight and ensures that the 6 Series Gran Coupé has the agility and precision expected of a BMW.

BMW will expand the 6 Series range to three models in June 2012 with the introduction of the Gran Coupé. BMW's first four-door coupé combines the elegant and sporty appearance of a classic grand tourer with the space and ease of access of an executive saloon.

A new 450hp V8 heads a range of three TwinPower Turbo engines, which also includes six-cylinder petrol and six-cylinder diesel powerplants. All three engines drive through an eight-speed automatic transmission and come with the full

Farewell Dave

ON Friday, May 25th in excellent weather conditions and with the fairways and greens in equally good state, Lyme Golf club bid a fond farewell to David Astill who has fulfilled the role of club steward for the past seven years writes Steve Percival.

Not only has David supervised the bar and catering provision for members he has also been prominent in the hosting of many of the social events of the club and has also taken charge of the Junior section of the club.

In the latter role the success of many of the juniors has been very much due to his efforts as well as those of the club professional Duncan Driver and his team of volunteer assistants.

The format of the day was a four-ball competition following which David was presented with presents funded through donations from grateful club members as well as honorary country membership awarded by the management committee.

Throughout his tenure as club steward David has been supported by his wife Chris who, despite experiencing ill health for much of the time, has been an excellent support for David and the many club functions for which he has been responsible.

Winners of the golf competition were Mike and Cindy Mudford partnered by Rob Clapp and Des Denning with 90 points closely followed by Tony Johnstone Brendan Cable and Jack Hansford partnered by C Bosence.

LADIES SECTION

THE Ladies of Lyme Regis Golf enjoyed their 36 hole Championship day in perfect playing conditions with Ladies' Vice Captain Gloria Lott, welcoming the Club President, Anne Humphries and past Captains, Anne Michie and Beryl Denham to present the trophies.

The day could not have been the success it was without the tireless assistance of Wendy Cannings who was at the Club from dawn to dusk and Handicap Secretary Sue Crabb.

The Morning Cup (best 18 holes played in the morning) was won by Hanna Jacobsen (nett 66). Carole Baker was a close runner-up (nett 68).

The Scots Trophy (most improved score in the second round of the 36 hole championship) was shared by Prue Russell, Jane Broom and Rosie Jackman, (all improved by eight shots). Meanwhile, the Wellings Salver (best nett score over 36 holes) went to Sophie Keech (nett 141) runner-up Susan Moore (nett 142).

The prestigious Denham Bowl was won by Sophie Keech (gross 143) runner-up Jane Southcombe (gross 165). Twos were scored by, Sophie Keech Caroline Baker and Jane Andrews.

SENIORS GOLF

DESPITE some early morning mist which quickly cleared the Seniors Section successfully stage their first open event of the year.

With entries from near and far, the full field enjoyed an excellent day of golf with the eventual winners of the four ball better ball competition being local duo Mike Brake & Terry Kearley from Bridport with 42 pints beating Terry Snell & Alan Fisher from Canford Magna on countback.

Beal sets PBs in regional champs

BEAMINSTER swimmer Rebecca Beal has set new long course personal best times at the 2012 South West Regional Championships held at the impressive new Plymouth Life Centre recently.

She was expecting to use her first event, the 200 individual medley, as a feel for the new pool and a warm up for her breaststroke events, but a good swim in the heats meant she qualified for the final in which she swam steadily to finish 10th in the regions 16-year-old age group.

Buoyed by this success she set the 5th fastest time in the 200 metre breaststroke, again giving her a spot in the final in which she finished 6th with another strong swim, and finish as Dorset's top 16-year-old breaststroke swimmer.

The last day saw Beal qualify for the final with the eighth fastest time in the 100 metre breaststroke. Despite a demanding competition she was in determined mood and she got her best start of the weekend to finish 7th, with a 0.77 improvement in time from the heats, and again top 16-year-old Dorset girl.

The coaching staff were delighted with her performances, as almost three weeks of preparation had been missed in the lead up to the event.

Rebecca has also been busy out of the pool also as she has now qualified as a level 1 swimming teacher completing her course which ran either side of the regional championships, and to round off a good weekend she met Tom Daley at the end of one of his training sessions and had some photo's taken with the diving star (see right).

BOB BUCKLER RACING WITH STUART BROOM

Small Fly enhances chances

SMALL FLY, who is up for sale, enhanced his chances at next week's Ascot Sales by winning in style at Ffos Las on Thursday when he raced home by four lengths in the Walters UK Handicap Hurdle over 2½ miles.

On a wet, miserable, foggy day where viewing conditions were difficult at best, Andrew Glassonbury kept the 10-year-old tucked in behind towards the rear of the 11-horse field, and after making some progress along the back straight appeared to have dropped away again.

Turning into the home straight three from home he made another challenge but looked under pressure.

But, after jumping the next sprang into life, and with all the others looking tired, he stayed on past them all and despite being 1½ lengths down on the long time leader Young Mags jumping the last, he romped away to win with ease.

CULLAHILL was a little disappointing in finishing fourth in the Saxton Drilling Ltd Handicap Chase over three miles in the race before.

To be fair, the ground was not ideal for him, softening as the afternoon went on from persistent rain in Wales, and although he ran on at the finish to easily take fourth, he was well detached from the first three.

Buckler said: "He ran in snatches which is unlike him, and has run better. The ground was not ideal but he stayed on at the end.

"He has been consistently good over the last three summers, but he is now ten and he is not getting any younger, but I am sure we can still find some good races where he will excel."

MISTER MATT once again finished the bridesmaid in the Class 3 SIS Live Handicap Chase at Newton Abbot on Tuesday following his second place nine days earlier at the same course.

However he was running in a class higher race, and despite not ever likely to catch the well fancied Marodima, Buckler was happy.

"I thought he was excellent. Marodima is a very good horse on his day; as he was in this race; and he was in a class higher than last week. But he jumped and acquitted himself very well."

The only disappointment was SULPIUS who couldn't produce the form when finishing third the week before, again at Newton Abbot, when he finished near the back of the newtonabbotracing.com Lady Riders' Selling Handicap Hurdle over 2¾ miles.

Ridden by Rachael Green, he never really got into the race and may well switch back to fences, for which his previous race was his first over the bigger jumps.

"It was disappointing as he never got into the race. He did come back with a nasty cut on the back of his leg where it looks he caught himself which might have been part of the reason.

"We had put him back over hurdles for this race having had his first race over fences the week before, but maybe it's time he went to fences full time."

INSIDE EDGE - CRICKET ROUND-UP

WITH STUART BROOM

Bridports 2nds win by a whisker

Dorset Funeral Plan League
Premier LeagueDORCHESTER 244-4 BEAT WINTON 240-9
BY SIX WICKETS

DORCHESTER returned to winning ways thanks to an unbeaten century from all rounder Dan Belt after newly promoted Winton had posted a difficult target for the county town.

James Dunham (1-14) made an early breakthrough, trapping George Wright for a single with only seven on the board, but M Clarke (56) and J Duke (82) added 154 for the second wicket to put them in command.

However it was Jon Legg that made the breakthrough getting Clarke and with Quenton Miller (3-42), two of them superb stumpings by Stuart Voss, halted their progress and with James Lewis (3-34) mopping up the tail, the Bournemouth side set Dorchester a target of 241 for victory.

After the loss of Lewis (10), Steve Gerety hit a brisk 33 with an array of strokes around the ground, but his dismissal saw Belt join Ian Sibley, and between them they added 130 for the third wicket. With Sibley (28) playing the anchor role, Belt set about the Winton bowling to ensure Dorchester stayed ahead of the run rate should the drizzle become heavier, and despite slippery conditions they did a superb job in setting up the win.

Duke (2-52) eventually trapped Sibley and Sam Goodhew (7) but Miller (21 not out) joined Belt for an unbroken partnership of 51 to ease Dorchester to victory with almost 13 overs to spare.

Skipper Martyn Richards said: "Whilst we did not underestimate them, they did take us a little by surprise and batted really well, and are a much better team than people have given them credit for. Clarke and Duke are both young players who paced their innings well, and taught us the importance of compiling innings to last 50 overs.

"It was drizzling at tea, so we are grateful for both Winton and the umpires for agreeing to continue; they could have pulled the plug on the game, but instead were happy to carry on.

"Dan Belt's innings was superb. His timing of the ball was spot on and he never looked like getting out and with Ian Sibley they put us in the driving seat. Steve Gerety was also invaluable. He set the tone after we had lost a couple of wickets by hitting a six and four 4s very quickly to get the run rate up in case the game was affected by the rain getting heavier, and he was unlucky to get out in the way he did."

WEYMOUTH 191 ALL OUT LOST TO COLEHILL
& WIMBORNE 130-5 WHO WON ON A FASTER
SCORING RATE

RAIN possibly robbed Weymouth of being the first side to defeat Wimborne & Colehill this season.

Chasing a total of 191, the league leaders were staring at possible defeat at 118-5 when rain intervened, stopping play for an hour, before, after returning for two hours, the game was abandoned.

Unfortunately by that time the visitors, who had been struggling at 75-4 were ahead of the run rate thanks to a fifth wicket partnership of 55 between the unbeaten Ben Bridgen (60 not out) and Francis Kerins (11) that gave them the match.

It would have been interesting had rain not intervened whether in fact Wimborne would have reached Weymouth's total.

Weymouth were indebted to a knock of 60 by Paul Payne who held their innings together. Ben Lawes (22) helped Payne early on after the early loss of Dean Janaway (2) and Hayden White (9).

However Oliver d'Erlanger-Bertrand (4-31) removed Ben Lawes and Keiron

Womble for a duck but useful contributions from Matt Lawes (22), Jim Ryall (22) and Dan Hutchens (24), helped swell the Seasiders total.

Although there were good bowling performances from Matt Lawes (1-31), Dave Trotter (1-41) and Hutchens (2-38), the rain put a dampener on any chance Weymouth might have had of claiming victory outright.

Division Two

CHRISTCHURCH 130-5 BEAT BEAMINSTER 126
ALL OUT BY FIVE WICKETS

CAPTAIN Will Everitt had a real struggle to field a side for the trip to Christchurch and was grateful for the help of three of the club's up and coming young players, Dave Percy, Andrew Livingston and Nick Hill.

Some indifferent batting at the top of the order saw Beaminster on the back foot but a tenacious half century from Ritchie Runyard backed up with some support from Simon Jones (14) and Ross Baker (13) saw them muster 126 all out, with opening bowler Cross (4-14) returning to mop up the tail leaving Runyard 57 not out.

Baker (2-40) and Jones (1-30) suggested that Beaminster might pick up some batting points, but opener Malone (39) and the home captain Rayner (31 not out) steadied the ship with a useful fourth wicket partnership. Although Beaminster captain Will Everitt dismissed Malone in his first over, Jeans quickly thrashed 26 before Everitt (2-18) also claimed him as a victim, before the hosts eased home.

Everitt said: "We were always up against it with such a changed side from previous weeks, but did the best we could.

"A good knock from Richie Runyard was a promising sign that form is coming back to him, but unfortunately a misfiring top order was our downfall.

"However we will be strengthened next week with the return of opener Freddie Everitt and strike bowler Tom Goatly."

WIMBORNE & COLEHILL 2ND 105-2 BEAT
DORCHESTER 2ND 103 ALL OUT BY EIGHT
WICKETS

DORCHESTER batted first on a hard, but very, green wicket and Ian Legg and Matt Porter found it hard to get the score going with Wimborne's opening bowlers moving the ball and coming through at a steady pace.

Legg was finally trapped lbw and whilst Rhys Cole looked to continue his good form, he lost Porter as they tried to increase the run rate.

The introduction of the spinners proved equally difficult for the Dorchester batsmen with their good line and flight proving difficult to get them away. Although most made starts they became frustrated by their accuracy and were dismissed to rash shots and were dismissed for 103 all out.

Despite Pete Phillips picking up a couple wickets and a good spirit in the field, the small target was difficult to defend and the hosts eased home with comfort.

Captain Stuart Beasley said: "It was a crucial toss to win on a hard, green wicket. We knew it was going to be tough batting, but credit to the lads who kept battling, but the score was nowhere near enough, and we have a few things that need to be worked on this week and come back stronger on Saturday."

SHILLINGSTONE 264-5 BEAT MARTINSTOWN
148 ALL OUT BY 116 RUNS

MARTINSTOWN lost their top of the table clash with Shillingstone who were indebted to a century from M Salisbury. Salisbury shared an opening stand of 90 with N Marshall (28) before he became Danny Dancer's first victim for a solid 124.

Opening bowlers Chris Read (1-55) and Dancer (2-55) were unlucky not to have success in their opening spells and all the bowlers including Danny Way (2-77) came in for some punishment.

Martinstown were soon in trouble in reply with both openers Ed Nichols (2) and Lee House (11) back in the pavilion with just 17 on the board and that got worse when Henry Lewis (8) departed to leave them 25-3.

Skipper Dancer (53) tried to steady the ship with a fine half century, but with only Rob O'Brien (22) and D Evans (18) able to muster much of a resistance, they were bowled out for 148 with M Meaden claiming 4-22.

Dancer said: "I lost another toss, but I felt we were unlucky not to take wickets in the first 10-15 overs where I felt Read and I bowled pretty good opening spells. With wickets in hand they played aggressively and, despite some good bowling at the death posted 264-5.

"I felt they had scored about 60-80 too many, but the wicket was good and the outfield was fast, so I didn't think we were out of the game.

"However I found myself making my way to the crease in only the 8th over having lost 3 early wickets, and by that point was hoping rain."

Division Three

BROADSTONE 3RD 181-9 BEAT BRIDPORT
165 ALL OUT BY 16 RUNS

BRIDPORT suffered some inconsistent batting in their narrow 16 run defeat at Broadstone 3rds.

Replying to the home teams target of 181-9, they were well ahead of the required run rate but lost wickets in clusters to put themselves back in trouble.

Batting first Broadstone 3rd's faced some tight bowling from Wes Lewis (1-30) and Dom Gape (3-41) which saw the hosts 33-2 after 15 overs, and at 54-4 things looked bright for Bridport.

However a 67 run fifth wicket stand between opener Rogers (53) and Tarr (31) gave Broadstone a boost, before a mid-order collapse.

A quick 33 from Manley, who was out to the last ball of the innings, saw them post a not unbeatable score with Marcel Grunschloss (2-37) the most successful of the other Bridport bowlers.

Dave Herbert (33) and skipper Liam Toohill (12) gave the visitors a solid start in reply but the loss of Herbert's wicket which saw them 79-4 was a blow as they were still well ahead of the rate required.

When Ed Halson went next ball it was left to Grunschloss to hold the innings together. He got support from Gape (17) and Lewis finished 18 not out, and although Bridport on reaching 165 earned three extra points for getting within ten per cent of the winning score, it was a game they felt they should have won.

Toohill said: "Their fifth wicket stand took the game away from us a bit but the score was manageable. We were well ahead of the rate, but kept losing wickets in clusters on an indifferent pitch."

PARLEY 2ND 122 ALL OUT LOST TO CATTIS-
TOCK 249-4 BY 127 RUNS

CATTISTOCK lost the toss and were put in to bat against an opening attack that included Tom Brackley who had a trial with Middlesex last season.

Despite his hostile speed he failed to unsettle openers Nick Roe (51) and Billy Walbridge (46) who put on 128 for the first wicket with Brackley (0-49) unable to contribute.

Cattistock lost a couple more quick wickets as they looked to push the score on but another century stand, this time an unbeaten 102 between Martin Langford (45 not out) and Ben Golledge (48 not out) saw them set Parley 2nd's a challenging total they were never going to reach.

Lee Anderson (3-28) took a wicket in the first over of their reply from which they never recovered. With Martin Langford taking 2-20 from the other end softening them up, the introduction of

■ GOOD SPELL: Adam Herring

Buddy Langford in the 22nd over was the final blow as he finished them off with 5-25 in 6.4 overs.

Division Five North &amp; West

BRIDPORT 2ND 199-6 BEAT BRADFORD
ABBAS 110-2 ON FASTER SCORING RATE

BRIDPORT scraped home by the narrowest of margins; 0.02 of a run faster than Bradford Abbas to win this rain affected match.

Bridport skipper Jamie Dolman explained: "Bradford Abbas had reached 93-2 after 23 overs when the rain became so bad we had to come off.

"As the second batting side is required to play a minimum of 25 overs for a result to be declared, their captain and I agreed that when the rain eased we would go out for two more overs to ensure a decision, to which they progressed their score to 110-2.

"We just couldn't decide who had won according to the rules and left it to the league who declared us winners; Bradford Abbas having needed one more run for victory."

Batting first Bridport lost opening pair, father and son Rod and Duane, for five apiece, but another superb knock from Ben Briscoe (85 not out) and Toby Hall who was dismissed immediately after reaching his half-century, put Bridport back in command.

Bradford Abbas started in similar fashion with Duane Gay bagging both openers cheaply, but the experienced C Wills (52 not out) and D Walters (21 not out) were looking threatening until rain intervened.

Division Six North &amp; West

BEAMINSTER 2ND 158-5 BEAT STALBRIDGE
3RD 247 ALL OUT ON FASTER SCORING RATE

DESPITE staring at a big defeat early on in this game, Beaminster 2nds won this game on a faster scoring rate after persistent rain drove the sides off the field with the home side on 158-5 after 27 overs.

Despite Adam Herring (2-42) bowling M Robertson for a duck with the score on seven it looked as if Stalbridge captain Nick Ford's decision to bat first was a good one as M Dowding (81) and W Robertson (58) carted the Beaminster bowlers to all corners of the ground.

The pair added 153 for the second wicket before Dowding was dismissed by an excellent catch by Steven Rathbone off veteran campaigner Stuart Lindsay, playing his first game of the season.

Beaminster though are a resilient side this season and wickets began to tumble after this.

A Galchin, who held the innings together with 42, was last man out as Beaminster recovered to dismiss their visitors for 247.

With skies threatening, Beaminster got off to a brisk start with Aaron Hull-Smith with a brisk 16 and David Hall also contributing with a typically solid 21. Dan Hillier hit a flamboyant 45 including a six out of the ground, and skipper Hugh Rathbone, a quick 28 as Beaminster looked to beat the rain. Lindsay and Justin Gurd were just getting going when the rain intervened to give the home side a well earned and valuable victory that sees them head the table.

Rathbone added: "Their top order batsmen gave us some problems but Steven Rathbone's excellent catch to dismiss the dangerous M. Dowding when he was threatening to take the game completely away from us was invaluable, whilst Stuart Lindsay and Adam Herring both bowled very well."

DEVON LEAGUE

2nd XI Division D

UPLYME & LYME REGIS 22ND 227-8 DREW
WITH KENTISBEARE 2ND 120-6

IN a rain affected match Uplyme and Lyme Regis 2nd XI showed great form with bat and ball against a 10-man Kentisbeare 2nd XI writes Paul Crompton.

Making the most of a small outfield Uplyme's Eddie Clarke (18) got the visitors off to a great start in an opening partnership of 35 with Henry Perry (25). With the score ticking along Tim Daniels (53) continued his good start to the season at number four to smash his way to 53 – including five sixes.

A mini-collapse halfway through the innings then saw three wickets fall for no runs.

But all-rounder Paddy Barraclough (55) stepped to the crease and bludgeoned the Kentisbeare attack in his first game back from university for the visitors.

His partnership of 80 runs for the eighth wicket with Michael Holding (25no) meant Uplyme finished on 227 and faced a race against the rain to gain a victory.

On a turning wicket leg spinner M Cook (3-33 from 13 overs) was the pick of Kentisbeare's bowlers.

In reply, Barraclough (1-31) and Holding (2-59) made the early breakthroughs leaving the hosts on 55 for three.

Right-arm off-spinner Ally Rattenbury was then brought into the attack and collected three wickets for just 28 runs in his first match of the season.

The hosts, now on 120 for six, had their prayers answered when the drizzle became too heavy to play and the game was abandoned.

Uplyme (14 points) jumped one place to sixth with 51 points. Kentisbeare (nine points) remain in second place

YOUTH CRICKET

Uplyme out of county cup

Uplyme & Lyme Regis U15 100-8 lost to Broadstone 105-9 by 5 runs

DORSET COUNTY ECB CUP

QUARTER-FINAL

BROADSTONE were bristling with county and district players for last Wednesday's cup quarter-final but hosts Uplyme matched them all the way.

Broadstone started well and stacked up a 30-run stand for the opening wicket, but order was restored with the introduction of Ollie Lee (2-6) and Sam Farrow (2-20).

However, a 27-run fifth wicket stand put Broadstone back on top but Alfie Bellworthy and Zac Harwood stemmed the flow by taking three vital wickets.

The innings closed with a fine run out by Wesley Holmes who hit the target from point with only one stump to aim at.

Behind the rate

Despite dropping a couple of catches Uplyme were pleased to have restricted the opponents to 105 in less than the 20 allotted overs

In reply, the hosts got off to a slow start against an accurate spin attack and had a big set back when county player, and captain, Sam Farrow went for 2.

At 34 for three off 10 overs Uplyme were well behind the rate.

But the game swung back their way with a fine innings of 42 by Jake Tansley who hit eight fours as he drove through the covers and past the bowler to put Uplyme back into contention.

Tansley was ably assisted by Will Lister who scored 27 in a stand of 59 and with two overs left Uplyme required 15.

But Tansley was bowled by Griffiths and the momentum of the innings was lost and with it the game - by just five runs.

Boat matches finally underway

THE West Bay Angling Club boat matches are finally underway.

The first match in April was cancelled due to bad weather but two matches have now been fished.

Sunday, May 6th.

NINE anglers signed on to fish the first one on Sunday May 6th, in good conditions with an easterly breeze, but fishing was poor with no specimen fish being brought to the scales.

Gerry Reed took the heaviest bag and the Boat Festival Cup, whilst most species went to guest angler Mark Probert and Rod Barr took the best fish on the day with a nice dogfish.

While pleasure fishing the following weekend, Boat Secretary James Barr caught and released a brightly coloured ballan wrasse (pictured) of 2460g (5lb 7oz.); a specimen of 108%.

The second boat match competition was a species hunt on May 22nd and won by Rod Barr with five variants.

SUNDAY DAYTIME MATCH INCLUDING JUNIOR SHORE

FESTIVAL - MAY 20TH WEST BAY

KEIRAN Ellison won the Junior Cup, with PJ Wheeler winning the overall competition.

Most members chose to fish from East beach where a few mackerel were caught using spinners or pop up rigs.

A few dogfish fell to ragworm baits; any undersized being immediately returned alive, as were a few undersized wrasse caught from the pier.

1st: P J Wheeler 1725grms 6 mackerel, 2nd: S Bowditch 1675grms 3 mackerel 1 plaice 1 dogfish, 3rd: D Cornick 1560grms 2 dogfish 1 mackerel, Species pool: A Cullingford - three, Heaviest fish pool: D Cornick dogfish 660grms, Junior Cup Winner: Keiran Ellison.

THURSDAY, MAY 10TH CHARMOUTH 7-10:30

A ROUGH sea with a spring tide greeted 12 West Bay members; an ideal combination for bass.

Unfortunately, the sea was full of weed that made the fishing almost impossible. Nevertheless two were caught early on in the first hour, the biggest by Steve Harwood, using sand eel as bait which at 2450grms won him the competition ahead of Simon Skinner.

1st: Steve Harwood 2450grms bass, 2nd: Simon Skinner 1980grms bass, 3rd: Adam Cullingford 1100grms 1 dogfish 2 pout, Heaviest fish pool: Steve Harwood bass 2450grms, Species pool: Mark Wickendon

Junior Results

SATURDAY, MAY 26TH

TEN juniors fished, and although at last a warm, sunny day, a very troublesome easterly wind made fishing conditions difficult with only three competitors weighing in one fish apiece.

Bekah Hughes won with her 75g rockling that was the last fish caught.

SATURDAY, MAY 12TH

A GOOD turn out with 13 signing on, but only four managing to catch.

1st: Keiran Ellison 115g, 2nd: Connor Hallett 104g, 3rd: James Lawrence 81g, 4th: Grace Lawson 33g, Heaviest round: James Lawrence 81g corkwing wrasse, Wooden spoon: Yasmin Harwood, Best Lady junior: Grace Lawson, Lightest fish: Keiran Ellison, First and last fish: Keiran Ellison, Most species: Keiran Ellison, Heaviest non-legal: James Lawrence, Best 12 year old and under: James Lawrence

Sponsors: Watch House Cafe, Kay Guppy, Tiny, Steve Harwood, Frank Daw, Mike Hallett and Dave Chidzey.

SATURDAY APRIL 28TH

NOT many turned out for this one with only five signing-up, and shanny, rockling and wrasse caught.

1st: Connor Hallett 384g (157g legal weight), 2nd: Keiran Ellison 241g (89g legal weight), 3rd: James Lawrence 11g, Heaviest round: Connor Hallett 120g corkwing wrasse, First and last fish: Connor Hallett, Last placed competitor that weighed-in: James Lawrence Sponsors: Kay Guppy, Tiny, Frank Daw, Michael and Connor Hallett.

The heaviest flatfish prize has not been claimed for three matches now, so the prize stands at £10 for the next match which takes place on 2nd June.

All junior matches are fished on a weigh and return basis.

DALEY TONIC FOR LOCAL SWIMMERS

THREE Woodroffe school students swam in the senior ASA South West Regional Championships which recently took place at the newly opened 50m pool at The Plymouth Life Centre.

Year 11 students Hannah Pullinger 16, Ben Fowler 16 and Year 10 Abigail Dare 15, represented Chard & District Swimming Club.

To compete at these Championships swimmers have to obtain the necessary regional level qualifying times in events. Hannah achieved qualifying times in ten events this year and selected six to compete in.

She obtained personal best times in five of these, and also qualified for the finals in the 16 year Girls 100 m Breaststroke coming 4th, and 50m Breaststroke coming 2nd winning the silver medal and equalling her own recent Open Age Club Record in this event.

Ben achieved qualifying times in three events and swam in all three at the Championships, again setting some personal best times. He made the 16 year Boys finals in the 100 Backstroke coming 10th, and 50m Backstroke coming 7th.

Abigail achieved her qualifying times in eight events and swam in five at the Championships, also achieving several personal best times. Abi made it into the 15 year Girls final for the 50 Backstroke coming 8th.

Whilst at the Championships the swimmers were treated with an unexpected visit to the pool by Olympic GB Team diver Tom Daley who now trains there; they were able to watch him in action in the new diving pool and afterwards the girls all took the chance to meet and be photographed with him; quite a weekend all round!

If you are interested in competitive swimming Chard & District Swimming Club have sessions for all age groups at Chard, Axminster, and Crewkerne. Come along for a free trial. Find out more at www.chardswimming.org

Bowls round-up: Thorne topples county champion

BRIDPORT OUTDOOR

ALTHOUGH Bridport men went out of the Top Club competition to Dorchester 1-4, Chris Thorne achieved a notable success by beating current Dorset Champion of Champions Wayne Garnett 21-14.

In the County League Bridport beat Portland Borstal Officers 54-48 with both Brian Rumble's and Chris Thorne's rinks finishing four shots ahead, and the third quartet only losing by the same score over the last two ends.

In the Percy Baker competition Bridport won both triples at Lyme Regis; Roy Lidington, Brian Iversen and Brian Rumble 21-10, and David Roberts, Brian Conisbee and Bill Payne 18-15.

The ladies lost to Lyme Regis 46-68 with only Margaret Clapp's rink achieving a win 21-19.

Two mixed friendlies have been enjoyed. At home to Seaton, Bridport lost 111-114 with Sylvia Smith, David Smith, John Carter and Rosemary Brooks top scoring 23-19 and a trip to the City of Wells resulted in the visitors winning 116-66 with John Groves, Bob Seadon, Barry Shortland and Christine Cowdrey finishing 26-11 ahead.

BRIDPORT INDOOR

with Brian Baker

ALAN Barr, Brian Legg & Brian Morgan's Eros were trailing the Hades 8-12 in the Evening League but a 5,3,2,1 finish saw them fly home 19-12 to stay on top spot.

Julian and Clive Baynes & Kevin Moy's Hermes were the weeks top gods, destroying Aphrodites 22-7.

Apollo led Sylvia and Mike Fletcher & Tony Bartlett's Zeus 7-9, before another great finish of 3,1,1,2,2 gave Zeus the win.

Beryl Stork, Bernard Wright and Andy Marsh's Poseidon and Ann Harris, David Conroy & Keith Hick's Athena won 17-11, 17-11 against Helios and Pan respectively.

Phil Benton, Bernard Waterman & Mary Hansford's Swimmers powered their way to a 21-6 win in the Morning League against the Gymnasts but couldn't match the Hurdlers of Shirley Lambert, Ann Parkins & Tony Sharood losing 5.15.

John Pedlingham, Keith Hicks & Chris Clarke's Gymnasts bounced back to beat Divers 15-6.

Rainbow, Mike Fletcher & Derek Fitzgerald's Equestrians and Julian Baynes, Rose & Chris Everest's Sailors picked up their first points with 13-7, 16-6 wins over the leading Archers and Equestrians respectively.

LYME REGIS with Paul Moffitt

THIS has been an encouraging week for the league teams, with the exception of the Championship side which again only managed two points.

The men's A team got eight points, the B team six points, thanks to a very heavy win on Geoff Cozens' rink, and the ladies topped it off with a very fine 8-2 win over arch rivals Bridport.

The ladies had further success in the second round of 'Top Club', beating Greenhill by a single shot with the disciplines tied.

In the friendlies, Lyme won one and lost one, with Captain John Beadsley struggling to get enough players because so many members are tied-up with County competitions.

On Saturday the club turned out in force for the Jubilee march through the town and along the Marine Parade.

After the parade two of the Chelsea Pensioners, who were staying in the town for the celebrations, tried their hand out on the bowling green providing a splendid sight in their uniforms.

LADIES 'TOP CLUB'

Wins for Lesley Broom in the singles and for Helen Dowling, Jean Perry, Nola Stephens and Ann Allman in the 4s.

The triple of Judith Moffitt, Sue Rowe and Kathy Clissold contrived to drop a '5' on the last end which cost them the game by two shots.

The pairs game with Jan Parsons & Chris Barber was a tough affair with the Lyme pair never really being in contention.

On count back Lyme had won by a single shot against a strong and experienced team from Greenhill.

The next round sees them playing away to Poole Park-now that will be interesting!
